

Recent tasters at Torquay Community College – Torquay Adult & Community Learning (South Devon College)

Eco Friendly Flower Arranging using Recycled Objects.

You can see from the results produced from this activity that creative techniques were used and beautiful arrangements made from recycled containers. The results are stunning!

One learner is keen to go on to do floristry at Bicton College and is volunteering at a local flower shop. Many were also intending to do more flower arranging courses in Torquay.

